

You are faithful

My heart aches for You my God
My soul waits for You my God
I've come far to find You here
In this place will I draw near

And Your spirit soars me
To the highest heights
From where I'll not look back
I'll keep trusting You

For I know You are faithful, my God
For I know You are faithful, my God

From the land of the barren
We will cry out for rain
Fill our hearts God
I'll keep trusting You

Your spirit inside me holds me close
Your wonderful presence I let go
I cleanse my hands, You burn my heart
I cry out for love, You set me apart
